PRESS RELEASE 007

As you know, we manage Duke's social pages and personal websites (www.sirdavid.info , www.dukeofd.org , etc.). We follow the guidelines that have been entrusted to us and respect the Facebook social rules to accept requests.

We remind everyone not to tag or post personal images or comments on the Duca Facebook page that have not been shared with us or are respectful of the page, which is exclusively about culture, art and some social moments of the Duca and its groups or clients.

We are sorry, but anyone who tags inappropriate posts will be removed from the friend's section.

Every page of the site has been updated with new services, new institutional partners and a new partnership with KONIO.

Please remember that the best way to communicate with Sir David is to write to us. secretariat@royalhouses-councilor.com Given the high number of monthly communications we receive, we only respond if we find interest and if there is compatibility with our services, the activity of Duca's Brand Ambassador or commercial activities compatible with the Duca groups.

If you intend to write to the Duke, regarding our activities, petitions or requests write to the emails: royal-councilor@outlook.com

If you intend to write to the Duke as President of the DH Group for partnership or collaboration with one of his groups write to the email: dhgroup.president@outlook.com

Thank you for your kind attention,

Director of the secretariat
Royal Houses Councilor
